Celebrating our children's achievements!

This is Daniel from Year 4. He trains with Saltburn and Marske swimming club three times a week. His favourite swimming stroke is butterfly. Last week he picked up a gold, a silver and two bronze medals at a swimming gala against clubs from all over the region.

Well done Daniel. Your effort and commitment is wonderful.

If you think you would like to have a go at swimming club and are at stage 7 swimming lessons or higher, email admin@saltburnandmarskeasc.com Training is on Monday evening, Saturday morning and Sunday evening.

Girl, 9, in rehab for Fortnite addiction

You may have read about this recently in the press - an obsessed primary school pupil secretly got up in the night and played until dawn. She neglected to go to the toilet because she could not bear to leave the screen. She hit her father when he tried to confiscate her Xbox gaming console and dozed off in class because of her night-time addiction.

Please ensure your child's screen time is carefully limited and supervised to help prevent mental health issues.

School Choir Perform at The Royal Festival Hall

Early on Sunday morning part of our wonderful school choir set off on their first ever tour to London. We visited the London Eye in glorious sunshine. We had an amazing view over the city of London. We could even see that the flag was flying on the roof of Buckingham Palace (we guessed the Queen had stayed at home just to see us).

We woke to another glorious day and arrived at the Festival Hall after a full English breakfast, ready to perform. The morning was spent in rehearsals with 11 other schools. We met many other children including a school from London who joined us. Many people had bought tickets and others at home logged in to see our live streaming. (www.teesvalleyctreateden.org) The lights went down and the concert began. Wow! What an amazing sound filled the venue. There was not a dry eye in the house, everyone was so proud of each child performing on the stage. The Strictly Come Dancing band performed with the children along with performers from the West End stage. A truly once in a lifetime experience.

On the way back to our digs we visited the Hard Rock Café for a burger and on the way home, we called into Harry Potter Studios; even the teachers flew through the skies on their broomsticks. We saw all the sets and costumes from all films.

Our children were absolutely amazing. They were a credit to you all and we are all very, very proud of them.

A huge thankyou to Mrs Cox, Mr Nixon, Mrs Mays, Mrs Dempsey, Mr O'Donovan and Mrs Hurst who made this wonderful event possible.

SCHOOL LUNCHES

WE HAVE HAD A NUMBER OF RESPONSES TO OUR HEALTHY SCHOOLS TEAM LETTER ABOUT PACKED LUNCH CONTENTS THIS WEEK. THANKYOU! THE TEAM WILL READ THEM ALL CAREFULLY AND REPLY WHERE NEEDED.

OUR CHILDREN HAVE WORKED CLOSELY WITH OUTSIDE PROVIDERS AND WE HOPE THAT YOU FOUND IT USEFUL.

OUR SCHOOL CATERING CONTRACT HAS RECENTLY GONE OUT TO TENDER AND SO WE MAY WELL HAVE NEW SCHOOL MEAL PROVIDERS FOR SEPTEMBER. WATCH THIS SPACE!

TICKS

Please be cautious when out in long grass this summer as we have had a number of reported cases of ticks. Do remember that they should be removed carefully and you should seek medical advice if at all concerned.
