Dear Parents,

Welcome to this week's news

It's been quite a chilly week in Skelton and we've certainly felt the cold during playtime and lunch! Please remind your child that coats are needed whilst the weather remains frosty.

On that note, please ensure all items are clearly labelled so our curly caterpillar doesn't end up laden with items!

Have a wonderful weekend!

MEDICATIONS IN SCHOOL

Following a recent update on medication, school are no longer able to give out non prescription medication. Also, we can only give out antibiotics that have been prescribed to be taken four times a day. Please pop in and speak to Mrs Smith our Family Support Worker, she will do everything that she can to help!

THOUGHT ABOUT TEACHER TRAINING?

NESTA are recruiting graduates for both primary & secondary one year teacher training. If you would like to find out more, please check out our website 'NEWS' tab.

FRIDAY FLYER DISTRIBUTION Are any of your friends missing out on our weekly news? Please ask them to contact the office with their child's name and an email address and we can add them to our mailing list. Please remember that our Friday Flyers are all archived on the school website.

I am having to stock up on more handwriting pens this week having given out so many! I am so impressed with the improvement in presentation this year!

Our Loyalty Cards

Please remember to get your card stamped when you attend a school event. When filled, you can redeem your card on school uniform or trip costs. Our Loyalty scheme will run for this year and next year as a trial. We will then evaluate the impact.

Have you had yours stamped yet?

DEBATING TEAM

Each week our Debating Team add a question for thought in our Upper Hall. Recently we asked

Should mobile phones be allowed in lessons?

82% of our pupils said YES.

What a turnout!

Wow, what an amazing turnout at this week's debate club. We made points for and against mobile phones being allowed in lessons. Next time, we will be having a live debate on the issue.

Mutual respect and tolerance

The children in FS2 have been showing their kindness by each making a friendship necklace for a friend in their class. They also had to make a card for that person too. We completed a circle time where the children gave out their necklaces and we talked about what a friend was and how to be a good friend.
