Look who hit the press this weekend?

Animal Rescue & Sanctuary in Loftus

On Sunday 16th June 2019, Tommy Dixon walked an incredible distance in aid of Hope Animal Shelter, Loftus. Tommy feels a great passion towards animals and their welfare; this charity is one he values deeply. He actually adopted his own dog, Jess, from the shelter in 2003!

Initially, he was hoping to raise £300 to support the charity. He started walking in Whitby and proceeded to stop at the following destinations: Sandsend, Runswick Bay, Cowbar/Boulby, Skinningrove & finally, finishing at Saltburn. The entire trek took a whopping 8 hours and 15 minutes!

The total raised was over £1000!

We are so proud of Tommy – he is an asset to our school and to our local community.

School Council

A huge thank you to our fantastic School Council representatives who had their final meeting of the school year earlier this week. Thomas Bowman, Faith Briggs, Ellis Jones, Summer Jones, Finlay Turner, Joseph Burns, Ben Harris, Elle Padgett and Dexter Winspear - you are all superstars and have worked so hard this year to complete every task given to you! Well done to you all.
