Dear Families,

Welcome to this week's news.

MINING EXPERIENCE

Our children have LOVED learning about Longacre and the life and times of miners around Skelton in bygone years. They have created some lovely work and conducted some great debates. Please do ask them to share what they know especiallyabout rats.....

A huge thank you to Jean Banwell and her army of volunteers from the Cleveland Ironstone Mining Museum, who have supported our mining experience this week. Remember that the Spirit of East Cleveland mining sculpture is being unveiled on April 6th (see below). Please do join us.
