Happy VE Day! We do hope that you have been able to enjoy some the activities planned.

You're doing a great job!

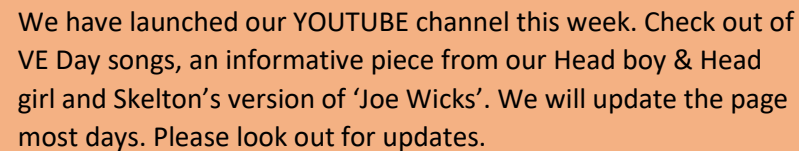

To get to the bottom.

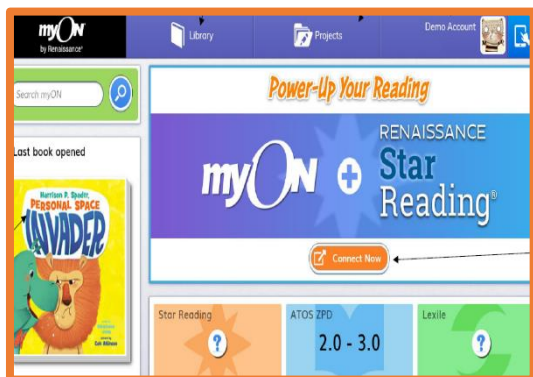

Why not get out the chess board? You can sharpen your skills at:

Accelerated Reader

Renaissance is committed to supporting parents to help keep students reading worldwide. They've provided step-by-step guides on how to access accelerated reader and other eBooks from home to ensure every child can continue their reading journey. We provided our own guide at the start of the school closure but you might find these useful too!

Here are the links:

The log on for our school Accelerated Reader (Renaissance Learning) is:

You will need to access this to take quizzes and to find your ZPD level.

WORRIED ABOUT YOUR CHILD'S SPEECH?

Speech & Language can't offer direct face to face intervention at the moment but are offering video clips and helpful tips and resources on

FB "South Tees NHS Children and Young People's SALT service"

Twitter - @SouthTeesSALT

Please spread the word. A number of families have mentioned concern about a regression in their child's speech.
