Dear Families,

Welcome to this week's news. The dark mornings are setting in and the weather is on the turn. Please wrap up on the way to school.

Thank you to Mrs Cox, Mr Nixon, our choir and KS2 for a moving Remembrance service this morning. We shared Laurence Binyon's poem:

*They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.*

Please join us at the cenotaph at 10.45 on Sunday as we lay our school wreath.

We are all very excited to welcome the panto theatre company into school on Tuesday. We will all be enjoying ROBIN HOOD.... Oh yes we will!

A fire quacker!

After School Clubs Reminder

Please remember that you MUST:

1. Sign up to after school clubs using the web link sent out before half term.
2. Ensure that if your child is not attending the club for any reason you let the office or staff member running the club know.

Numbers on some clubs are limited and only those booked on will be allowed to attend. This online booking also allows staff members to register the children's attendance. We will then call you if your child has not attended to ensure they returned home safely and to check if they still wish to attend the club.

The Big Debate

This week in school, we have been debating:

'Should plastic bags be banned from shops completely?'

We had an overwhelming majority that agreed they should be! What do you think?

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 15th
S.P.S. DOES CHILDREN IN NEED

Please donate what you can and wear

- Spots or
- Yellow or
- PJs

All donations will be sent to Children in Need.

FAMILY QUESTIONNAIRE

Please share your views. It will take just 2 minutes to complete and your feedback & suggestions really make a difference. THANKYOU!

The Sun launch their FREE BOOKS FOR SCHOOLS CAMPAIGN on November 23rd. The campaign runs for seven weeks. If we can collect 3,500 tokens, we can claim hundreds of books for our children. Please tell your friends and family. THANKYOU
