Hello everyone,

How are you this week?

The children and staff have had a sunny, windy, rainy week; our first within bubbles and they have adapted very well. Children are confined to a small part of the school with no contact beyond their bubble classmates and peers. We are delighted with how kind and supportive they being with one another.

It has been a very strange open evening week but lovely to speak to you at home, share good news and answer some questions for you. Please remember that you can drop me a line if you have any queries;

I am sharing assemblies from my office. One of our Foundation Stage children told me at lunchtime this week "You are on our telly!".
