Dear Families,

How are you all?

We hope that you managed to read and enjoy your school reports. Your responses to our request for information about your lockdown learning experiences have been invaluable. Thank you so much for taking the time to share.

Next week is the last week of the school year. We look forward to our virtual proms on Wednesday at 2pm, please join us.

Also, look out for your welcome meeting presentation for the new school year, including an interview with your teacher. We will all be back together but we will have a new normal and many routines will remain altered to keep our children and staff safe. Our website will also be updated with all of the information that you will need.

School closes for children on Thursday July 16th; staff have training on Friday in preparation for the new school year.

Enjoy your weekend

Ms Walker
